Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

ST. RITA CHURCH

Joyfully living and sharing the Gospel of Jesus, we welcome, worship, inspire, and serve with love.

From the Desk of Father Tim . . .

Two wonderful extra things will be happening at Mass next weekend, February 1st & 2nd!

It is the feast of the Presentation of the Lord, celebrated every year on the 2nd of February, 40 days after Christmas. We will hear about Mary and Joseph taking the infant Jesus to the temple to be presented to the Lord. They will meet the prophets Simeon and Anna; both declare that this child is the Messiah, the light to the nations, and is destined for the redemption of Jerusalem. This feast was first celebrated in Jerusalem around 325 AD.

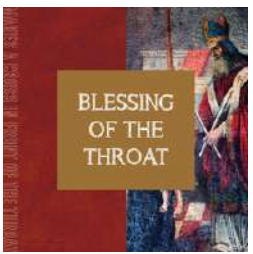

Picking up on the theme of light, we will be celebrating Candlemas, which is what it sounds like, a Candle Mass. During the Mass there will be a blessing of candles for use in the Church or home.

So, bring your candles to be blessed!

These are candles you will burn during prayer, candles for a holy nook in your home, or candles for special family celebrations. They can be dinner candles, candles in a jar, or any candle you would like blessed. We will also be blessing the candles that will be used for the Blessing of the Throats.

Which brings us to our second wonderful extra event. Since Monday, February 3 is the Feast of St. Blaise, we will be celebrating with the traditional Blessing of the Throats. Legend has it that St. Blaise saved a child who was choking on a fish bone, and so he has become the patron saint of those with a disease of the throat.

The Blessing of the Throats will take place at the end of each Mass next weekend, February 1st & 2nd.

Yours in Christ,
Fr. Tim

Over the Jubilee Year, we will explore the themes of Hope, Pilgrimage, and Jubilee, always ending with a question for you to consider over the week.

The section of Isaiah read by Jesus in today's Gospel is also the basis of a Jubilee Year. During a jubilee, we strive to right the relationships of our world – in short to proclaim a year acceptable to the Lord. Those relationships are as varied as our population.

Pondering Point

What relationships do you have that need to be put on a better track? What groups are you a part of that can help?

January 24-26 - Blessing those in Communications

A prayer for all those working in the world of communications including journalists, media professionals, managers and editors of newspapers, Boards of Directors, video makers, graphic designers, copywriters, PR staff, social media managers, audio and video technicians, typographers, IT experts, etc.

May God, who sent His angel to communicate to Mary, Joseph, and the Shepherds the Good news of Jesus' birth; who speaks through His prophets; and who never tires of reaching out to the least among us, bless you with the right words and convictions in all you communicate, in His most Holy Name: Father, Son and Holy Spirit. Amen.

Reflections on Readings for the Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Today This Scripture Passage Is Fulfilled In Your Hearing"

Today, we hear two readings from the Scroll of the Word of God. In our first reading, the Israelites recommit themselves to God's Word as they seek to rebuild Jerusalem after their return from exile in Babylon.

In our Gospel reading, Jesus proclaims Himself to be the long awaited fulfillment of Isaiah's prophesy of the Messiah.

In our first reading (Nehemiah 8:2-4, 5-6, 8-10), the priest Ezra read and interpreted to the people the Law of God (the Torah that most had forgotten while in exile). Ezra and Nehemiah, the governor of Judea, proclaimed, "Today is holy to the Lord your God. Do not be saddened on this day."

In our Epistle reading (1 Corinthians 12:12-30), we hear a continuation of last Sunday's Epistle (we have many gifts but "the same Spirit produces all of these"). In today's passage, the theme continues - we are all one body though we are many parts. It speaks to the wide diversity of callings from our God, each to serve a different aspect of the Church and its people.

In our Gospel reading (Luke 1:1-4, 4:14-21), we hear Jesus' first public speech / sermon in Luke's Gospel. In this time after Epiphany, we heard a number of manifestations of the glory and power of our God in Christ. The angels' proclamation to the shepherds, then the Baptism of the Lord and the Father's proclamation, then the Magi's visit, then the miracle at Cana, and in today's reading, Jesus manifested Himself as the fulfillment of Isaiah's prophesy that the Messiah would "proclaim liberty to captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to let the oppressed go free ..." After reading this passage from the scroll in His hometown synagogue, Jesus said, "Today this Scripture passage is fulfilled in your hearing."

There are a number of themes in today's readings, but the foremost is Jesus' self-manifestation that He is indeed the Messiah, the Anointed One of God. May our heartfelt and passionate response to the word of God be, like those who heard Ezra proclaiming from the Book of the Law of God, to reestablish Jesus as the central focus of our lives and our world.

We are so excited to celebrate Catholic Schools Week all week long with treasured traditions and some new and fun activities, too.

Thank you to all who participated in our Kick Off Mass this weekend!

- This Monday, students can wear comfy clothes to school and will receive extra reading time complete with pillows, flashlights, and blankets so they can be extra cozy.
- "Tacky Tuesday" will feature wacky, tacky outfits and a Bingo Party for K-5 students
- Wednesday - No School
- Thursday will be a "SOUP-er" Day! Students can wear clothes representing their favorite sports teams and they can bring in a can of soup to donate to a local food pantry. The 5th Graders will be leading a school carnival as their service project for the week.
- Friday staff and students will take part in the Catholic Schools Week Mass. We will be full of school spirit as students wear their blue or gold spirit wear. The 5th Annual "Minute To Win It" game will also take place and that will surely bring smiles and laughs.
